MISSION STATEMENT The people of God in West Orange were called by the Holy Spirit in 1914 to form Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, a community centered on Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit remains with us today as we continue our journey to God. We are inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished by the Eucharist, called to respect life and proclaim our Catholic faith. We serve God by providing spiritual, educational, and social activities for our parish family as well as extending God's love and compassion to serve the greater community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes,

Part 1. Personal Reflection on Computer / E-mail

Recently, as part of my daily routine, I turned on my computer. It is remarkable to me that my computer-laptop seems to be so forgiving, so generous – you might say – in allowing me to keep (retain) thousands and thousands of email messages. I logged in and saw that I had 3,600-plus emails in my inbox.

But, I had become lax and somewhat indifferent toward their existence, feeling that they represented an important historical record of my life, that should never be deleted or removed.

It seems that AOL and Verizon and my H-P laptop were quite content to let me – all along -- keep as many messages as I wanted -- 3,000, 5,000 – or more – email messages.

And, it seems that God as our heavenly father and Lord is going to allow us to hold on to all of our history, even all of our faults and failings and sins for as long as we want to do so.

Part 2. Sacramental Confession / Penance

What I am suggesting is not a perfect analogy or parallel, but I am suggesting that the sacramental confession of our sins to the priest -- with the related actions of

- ▶ CONFESSION – stating what we did wrong.
- ▶ CONTRITION – stating that we are sorry for what we did ..
- ▶ PENANCE – interior reflection afterwards and some amendment or prayer or generous service

▶ ABSOLUTION – words of mercy that take away these sins.

I'm suggesting that this confession – sacramental confession – is similar to starting over with ZERO messages.

Part 3. The Goal of Forgiveness / Absolution / Starting Over

Receiving absolution does not mean that I can pretend that I never sinned. But I can let go of my attachment to what I have done. It is true that God will let us keep our sins on our hard drives and on our hearts for as long as we wish. But, it is freeing and liberating to remove them – to have them taken away as far as the east is from the west (Psalm 103:12) to remove our connection to them.

Why should we delete old email messages?

One healthy reason to delete old emails or clean up our file folders is that – contrary to what the Cloud-storage people will tell you or what we would like to think – all that history and all those messages really do not prepare us to meet the future.

I may believe that I can search – electronically – for an email from 3 years ago, but that presumes that I know what it is.

Maybe I should just move on. And, my laptop computer will be more efficient anyway (so will I).

A healthy reason for us to go to confession is not simply to clean up the past or to get a good spiritual credit score, but rather to recognize that we – like God – are trying to focus on the future, on what's coming next.

St. John Vianney, patron saint of parish priests, shared this message to those of us – and all of us may feel this way at some point – feel discouraged – or we do not feel encouraged.

We fear going to confession because we fear falling into the same sin ...or we fear that confession is not for real because... past performance does not guarantee future results.

Jesus does not ask for a guarantee – Jesus is making the guarantee of his mercy, that his mercy, can change the heart of the woman brought to him in the Gospel and that his mercy can change the hearts of her accusers. He is willing to die for our sins, to prove that his mercy endures forever. St. John Vianney shared that God loves us so much that he is willing to forget both the past and the future in which we may sin again.

Confession is not only about what we can remember to do – or we can remember to say – but also what we can forget, what we can delete, and put in God’s hands – to go back to the future, so that we may, by endeavor by effort, to go and sin no more.

In Christ’s Peace,
Father Jim Ferry
